STAY

LUMA'S community space boasts plush lounge seating.

The first-ever hotel in Mission Bay, the innovative new LUMA Hotel San Francisco beckons with a variety of luxury amenities, including a 1,500-square-foot, state-of-the-art fitness center, enclosed rooftop bar and sky lounge, and several large-scale art installations from notable San Francisco artists. We recommend the 16th-floor penthouse suite, which boasts a separate living and dining room, powder room, wet bar and full spa bathroom complete with a soaking tub and river stone shower. Plus, the lodging's proximity to Chase Center and Oracle Park equals endless entertainment. 100 Channel St., 415.266.9999, lumahotels.com/san-francisco

WITNESS

A revolutionary immersive exhibition, Ramses the Great and the Gold of the Pharaohs transports guests to the golden age of ancient Egypt under the rule of Ramses II, also known as Ramses the Great. Explore more than 180 artifacts at this stunning exhibition, including objects from the pharaoh's personal collection as well as those found elsewhere in Egypt to offer an idea of what his tomb must have included. The virtual reality experience is a must, allowing guests to tour two of Ramses' most impressive monuments, Abu Simbel and Nefertari's tomb. Through Feb. 12, 2023, de Young Museum, 50 Hagiwara Tea Garden Drive, 415.750.3600, deyoung.famsf.org

Fresh Victor makes crafting tasty cocktails easy, like this cactus pear and pomegranate cosmo.

Make entertaining a breeze with San Francisco's own Fresh Victor, cold-pressed juice mixers that create perfect craft cocktails in an instant. Choose from nine refreshing flavors, including Mexican lime and agave (best in margaritas), three citrus and mint leaf (optimal for mojitos) and pineapple and ginger root (perfect for pisco punch). With only 75 to 90 calories per serving, as well as being all natural, gluten free, kosher and vegan, each deliciously boozy beverage can be enjoyed guilt free. Purchase online or in select San Francisco Whole Foods, Mollie Stone's, Draeger's and more. Cheers! shopfreshvictor.com
